

Privacy Policy

Colorcon respects the privacy of our customers and other visitors to our website and will take reasonable precautions to protect this privacy and the security of this website. Our website is organized so visitors do not need to provide personal information to view general pages. However, to access certain restricted areas of our website we do require you to register. This privacy policy sets out how Colorcon, Inc and its affiliates (together "Colorcon") uses and protects any information that you give Colorcon when you use this website.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to update this policy at any time without notice. Any changes to the policy will be reflected in this page. You should check this page from time to time to ensure you are aware of the most current policy. Your use of certain areas of the website may also be subject to additional Terms of Use.

Information Collection and Use

To register for certain areas of our website you will be asked to provide information such as:

- name and job title
- contact information including email address, mailing address, and telephone number
- preferences, interests, and other relevant data

We require this information to respond appropriately to your requests and provide superior service. We will also use this information to better understand your needs and to build our customer relationship.

This information may be used to send you periodic information and updates about products and services we think you may find interesting. We may also periodically use this information to contact you for market research or to send you promotional material. Of course, you may elect not to participate in a survey or receive promotional material.

Colorcon will not sell your personal information to, or in anyway share it with, a third party without your permission, except as provided in this privacy policy or when we are required to do so by law.

If you choose not to provide us with this information, you can still access our website, but you will not be able to view restricted content, or access certain service features.

Information Protection and Security

Colorcon will take reasonable precautions to protect the information collected from online visitors from unauthorized access and use. We have put several procedural, technical and administrative measures in place to safeguard and secure the information we collect online. We designed Colorcon.com to accept your information only from web browsers that permit communication through Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology. Information is maintained on a secured server that is located behind a firewall, which is not directly connected to the internet.

The firewall meets all recognized industry standards. Although we implement these security measures on this site, you should be aware that 100% security is not always possible.

As Colorcon is part of an international group of companies, the information may be stored and/or accessed outside of the UK or Europe including in the United States. You consent to us doing so. If we reorganize or sell our business, the information you provided may be disclosed to a purchaser as part of that process.

Accessing Your Information and Contacting Colorcon

The Customer Care section of Colorcon Limited may record conversations, with customers, for the purposes of assuring compliance with Colorcon's customer care standards and for use in the training of Colorcon employees engaging in such calls.

You may request details of the information which we hold about you. If you would like a copy of this information, please contact your local customer care location in writing.

If you believe any information we are holding on you is incorrect, incomplete, or no longer current, please inform us by contacting your customer care location in writing. We will promptly make required corrections.

Use of Cookies

A cookie is a small file we may place on your computer's hard drive, which helps our website respond to you as an individual. Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website by monitoring your preferences. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyze data about web page traffic and improve our website by tailoring it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

A cookie does not give us access to your computer or any information about you, other than information about your browsing of our site.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Links to Other Websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over those other websites. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide while visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement.
