Take the uncertainty out of your Tablet and Capsule Manufacturing

Unlike traditional ingredients, Nutracore™, Natural Advantage excipients are made from natural materials and designed for manufacturability - meaning you'll be able to meet label friendly consumer needs without compromising on performance.

Thanks to the superior powder flow, lubricity and compressibility of Nutracore™, Colorcon makes it simpler than ever to make great label friendly products, even with challenging ingredients like garlic and ashwagandha.

- ✔ Superior flow
- ✔ Compressibility
- ✔ Lubricity

Colorcon's natural advantage excipients and coatings are specially designed to meet local regulatory requirements, along with the technical and commercial needs of global nutraceutical and supplement providers.

When you partner with Colorcon, we help you to develop a label friendly nutritional product with the competitive edge needed to drive your business growth.
